

PUDSEY GRAMMAR SCHOOL

EST.1905

Complaints Policy 2025 - 2026

This policy has been agreed by the Governing Body of
Pudsey Grammar School

Ratified: Full Governing Board

Date approved: 11th June 2025

Date of review: July 2026

Important note: complaints regarding School Policy

All of our School Policies are discussed and ratified by our Governors. In addition we work with Leeds City Council to ensure that our policies follow, and go beyond in many cases, the statutory requirements of a school. Whilst parents, carers and other have the right to complain about any issues it should be noted that a complaint where the school is following a ratified and agreed policy will not automatically go to a panel of Governors.

The majority of concerns from parents, carers and others are handled under the following general procedures.

The procedure is divided into three stages;

The informal stage aims to resolve the concern through informal contact at the appropriate level in school.

Stage one is the first formal stage at which written complaints are considered by the Headteacher or the designated governor, who has special responsibility for dealing with complaints.

Stage two is the next stage once stage one has been worked through. It involves a complaints appeal panel of governors.

How each of these stages operates is explained below:

Informal stage – your initial contact with the school

1. Many concerns will be dealt with informally when you make them known to us. The first point of contact should be your child's Form Tutor. For more serious issues, the Form Tutor may involve the Year Leader.
2. Once your concern is made known to us, we will see you, or contact you by telephone or in writing (please refer to the Home-School Communications Policy). If it is necessary, all members of staff know how to refer to the appropriate person with responsibility for your particular issues. He or she will make a clear note of the details and will check later to make sure that the matter has been followed up.
3. Any actions or monitoring of the situation that has been agreed, will be communicated clearly and we will confirm this in writing to you.
4. If necessary, we will contact appropriate people who may be able to assist us with our enquiries into your concern.
5. We will normally update you on the progress of our enquiries within ten school days. Once we have responded to your concern, you will have the opportunity of asking for the matter to be considered further.

6. If you are still dissatisfied following this informal approach, your concern will become a formal complaint and we will deal with it at the next stage.

Stage one - formal consideration of your complaint

This stage in our procedures deals with written complaints. It applies where you are not happy with the informal approach to dealing with your concern, as outlined above. Formal complaints should be lodged as soon as possible, but no later than three months of the incident or issue occurring. There may be exceptions to this, for example, complaints involving allegations with child protection implications, where it is necessary to conduct an investigation sometime after the event.

1. Normally, your written complaint should be addressed to the head teacher. If, however, your complaint concerns the head teacher personally, it should be sent to the school marked "for the attention of the chair of governors".
2. We will acknowledge your complaint in writing as soon as possible after receiving it. This will be within three school days.
3. We will enclose a copy of these procedures with the acknowledgement.
4. Normally we would expect to respond in full within 15 school days but if this is not possible we will write to explain the reason for the delay and let you know when we hope to be able to provide a full response.
5. As part of our consideration of your complaint, we may invite you to a meeting to discuss the complaint and fill in any details required. If you wish, you can ask someone to accompany you to help you explain the reasons for your complaint.
6. The Headteacher, or Chair of Governors may also be accompanied by a suitable person if they wish.
7. Following the meeting, the Headteacher, Investigating Officer or Chair of Governors will, where necessary, talk to witnesses and take statements from others involved. If the complaint centres on a pupil, we will talk to the pupil concerned and, where appropriate, others present at the time of the incident in question.
8. We will normally talk to pupils with a parent or carer present, unless this would delay the investigation of a serious or urgent complaint, or where a pupil has specifically said that he or she would prefer the parent or carer not to be involved. In such circumstances, we will ensure that another member of staff, with whom the pupil feels comfortable, is present.
9. If the complaint is against a member of staff, it will be dealt with under the school's internal confidential procedures, as required by law.

10. The Headteacher or Chair of Governors will keep written/typed, signed and dated records of all meetings and telephone conversations, and other related documentation.
11. Once we have established all the relevant facts, we will send you a written response to your complaint. This will give an explanation of the Headteacher's or Chair of Governors' decision and the reasons for it. If follow-up action is needed, we will indicate what we are proposing to do. We may invite you to a meeting to discuss the outcome as part of our commitment to building and maintaining good relations with you.
12. The person investigating your complaint may decide that we have done all we can to resolve the complaint, in which case we may use our discretion to close the complaint at this point. Please see the next page for further information about this process.
13. It is important to note that if it is found at stage one that your complaint is due to the school following an agreed and ratified policy, stage two will involve the matter being reviewed by the Chair of Governors. The full Governing Body has delegated responsibility to the Chair in such cases.
14. If you are unhappy with the way in which we reached our conclusions, you may wish to proceed to stage two, as described below.

Stage two - consideration by a governors appeal panel

- If the complaint has already been through stage one and you are not happy with the outcome as a result of the way in which the complaint has been handled, you can take it further to a Governors Appeal panel. This is a formal process, and the ultimate recourse at school level. The exception to this is where it is found at stage one that your complaint related to the school following an agreed and ratified policy. In these cases the Chair of Governors will review your evidence and that of the school. The Chair will then write to you with the outcome. This could be that it is referred on to a panel of Governors if the complaint requires further investigation. If the Chair is satisfied that your complaint is based on the school following an agreed and ratified policy they will inform you of this and that is the end of the process.
- Every term, the Chair of Governors will provide the full Governing Body with a report of any complaints they have dealt with in this manner. Governors are free to question the Chair and the Board may decide that they wish to refer the matter to a panel of Governors for review.
- If a complaints is referred to a panel of Governors, the purpose is to give you the chance to present a summary of your arguments in front of a panel of governors who have no prior knowledge of the details of the case and who can, therefore, consider it without prejudice.

- However, the aim of a panel is not to rehear the complaint. It is there to review how the complaint has been investigated and to determine whether this has been conducted fairly. It is there to establish facts and make recommendations which will reassure you that we have taken the complaint seriously.

The Governors Appeal panel operates according to the following formal procedures:

1. The Governing Body will convene a panel of three governors and will aim to arrange for the panel meeting to take place within 20 school days.
2. You will be asked whether you wish to provide any further written documentation in support of your appeal.
3. The Headteacher or Complaint Investigator will be asked to prepare a written report for the panel. The panel can request additional information from other sources if necessary.
4. You will be informed, at least five school days in advance, of the date, time and place of the meeting. We hope you will feel comfortable with the meeting taking place in the school, but we will do what we can to make alternative arrangements if you prefer.
5. With the letter, you will receive any relevant correspondence or reports regarding stage one, and you will be asked whether you wish to submit further written evidence to the panel.
6. The letter will explain what will happen at the panel meeting and that you are entitled to be accompanied to the meeting. The choice of person to accompany you is your own, but it is usually best to involve someone in whom you have confidence but who is not directly connected with the school. They are there to give you support but also to witness the proceedings and to speak on your behalf if you wish.
7. If it is necessary in the interests of ratifying the investigative process, the Complaint Investigator may, with the agreement of the Chair of the panel, invite relevant witnesses directly involved in matters raised by you to attend the meeting.
8. The Chair of the panel will bear in mind that the formal nature of the meeting can be intimidating for you and will do his or her best to put you at your ease.
9. As a general rule, no evidence or witnesses previously undisclosed should be introduced into the meeting by any of the participants. If either party wishes to do so, the meeting will be adjourned so that the other party has a fair opportunity to consider and respond to the new evidence.

10. The Chair of the panel will ensure that the meeting is properly minuted. Please understand that any decision to share the minutes with you, the complainant, is a matter for the panel's discretion and you do not have an automatic right to see or receive a copy as the minutes are the property of the Governing Body. Since such minutes usually name individuals, they are understandably of a sensitive and, therefore, confidential nature.
11. Normally, the written outcome of the panel meeting, which will be sent to you, should give you all the information you require. If, however, you feel that you would like to have a copy of the minutes it would be helpful if you could indicate this in advance. If the panel is happy for the minutes to be copied to you, the clerk can then be asked to maintain confidentiality in the minutes.
12. During the meeting, you can expect there to be opportunities for:
 - the panel to hear you explain your case and your argument for why it should be heard at stage two;
 - the panel to hear the Complaint Investigator's case in response;
 - you to raise questions via the Chair;
 - you to be questioned by the Complaint Investigator through the Chair;
 - the panel members to be able to question you and the Complaint Investigator; and
 - you and the Headteacher to make a final statement.
13. In closing the meeting, the Chair will explain that the panel will now consider its decision and that written notice of the decision will be sent to you and the Headteacher within three school days. All participants other than the panel and the clerk will then leave.
14. The panel will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented in order to:
 - reach a unanimous, or at least a majority, decision on the case;
 - decide on the appropriate action to be taken, if necessary; and recommend, where appropriate, to the Governing Body changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that similar problems do not happen again.
 - The clerk will send you and the Headteacher a letter outlining the decision of the panel. The letter will also explain that you are entitled to have the handling of the complaint reviewed by the Secretary of State for Education.
15. We will keep a copy of all correspondence and notes on file in the school's records but separate from the pupils' personal records.

Closure of complaints

Very occasionally, a school and/or the LA will feel that it needs, regretfully, to close a complaint where the complainant is still dissatisfied. We, and the Local Authority where appropriate, will do all we can to help to resolve a complaint against the school but sometimes it is simply not possible to meet all of the complainant's wishes. Sometimes it is simply a case of "agreeing to disagree".

If a complainant persists in making representations to the school – to the Headteacher, designated Governor, Chair of Governors or anyone else – or to the Local Authority, this can be extremely time-consuming and can detract from our responsibility to look after the interests of all the children in our care.

For this reason, we are entitled to close correspondence (including personal approaches, as well as letters and telephone calls) on a complaint where we feel that we have taken all reasonable action to resolve the complaint and that the complaint has exhausted our official process. The Local Authority will support us in this position, and especially where the complainant's action is causing distress to staff and/or pupils.

In exceptional circumstances, closure may occur before a complaint has reached stage two of the procedures described in this document. This is because a complaints panel takes considerable time and effort to set up and we must be sure that it is likely to assist the process of investigating the complaint.

The Chair of Governors may decide, therefore, that every reasonable action has been undertaken to resolve the complaint and that a Complaints Review panel would not help to move things forward.

Where you have been through the school's internal complaints procedures (with or without recourse to a Complaints Review panel) and are still unhappy with the outcome or decision from the Governing Body, you can contact the Secretary of State for Education via the DfE website www.education.gov.uk, by telephoning 0370 000 2288 or by writing to the address below:

The School Complaints Unit (SCU)
Department for Education
Piccadilly Gate
Store Street
Manchester
M1 2WD

Please enclose with your letter to the DfE a copy of the complaint outcome. This will save time in that the DfE will not need to ask for our view of what has happened.

We would advise parents that, unless the school is shown to have behaved unreasonably or not to have followed their own procedures, there is likely to be little further action that can be taken, as governing bodies are empowered to deal with many issues without reference to either the Local Authority or the Secretary of State.

Other sources of information and advice

If your concern is about an aspect of special educational needs provision, which might include information about relevant voluntary organisations and support groups in Leeds, you might like to talk to our Parent Partnership service on their helpline: 0113 395 1200.